Special Education Coordinators

Event Overview:
This program is designed to provide mentorship, networking and maintenance of professional best practice in terms of supporting diversity in regular education. The Special Education Coordinator days are termly events focussed on addressing current issues and directions in supporting all students with diverse learning needs. Topics will include the RTI, Referral Processes, DDA obligations, PBS and LNSLN with a move towards developing an adjustments framework.

Who can participate?
Educators responsible for Special Education Coordination in their schools.

How the program will be structured:
Special Education Coordinator days are to be held termly within each zone. Dates for 2016 will be distributed before the end of the 2015 school year.

What is expected of participants?
It is expected that participants are working in the role of special education coordinator and that they will attend all four days.

What is required of the principal?
It is an expectation that all special education coordinators have time allocated to attend these four days and be supported in the role that are fulfilling in schools with the necessary resources – mainly time – to be effective.

What you can expect from the CEOB:
The CEOB will provide facilitations of the Special Education Coordinator days.
Special Education Coordinators will be supported in their role in an ongoing manner by Education Officers: psychologists, speech pathologists and special educators.

Registration:
Registration for this program will be available online and will close on November 30th 2015.
Registration implies that participants have the full support as outlined of their school principal.
The early close off date will enable CEOB to determine the actual number of participants and the location of these participants which will support us in determining the number of programs that will be run next year and where.
Adherence to this closure date should make it possible to provide all participants with actual program dates and locations by Friday December 4th.
